Identity: mine, yours, ours!

EUROPEAN YOUTH EXCHANGE

SUMMARY

"Identity: mine, yours, ours project is a youth exchange suggested by the young members of ADPCNS with the main goal to develop a wider knowledge about other cultures, identities traditions and European citizenship. The project involves 24 youngsters with 15-18 years old from Portugal, Italy, Romania and Turkey, followed, each group, by a group leader older than 18 years old.

The project aims' are the discussion of national identity, its culture and traditions, but also the others partners identities, culture and traditions in order to promote a bigger knowledge about the common culture that we all should have because we live in Europe, fighting cultural stereotypes. We want to develop in young people their awareness about other European realities and wider knowledge about European citizenship.

All project is based in non formal educational methodologies throught games and group dynamics, presentation activities of all countries involved, debates, cultural visits, group work and dicussions.

With the project we want that young people to develop their proud for their culture and curiosity about others' culture, increase their knowledge about European reality and European citizenship, improve their skills to communicate in English and in other languages. We want them to want to participate in future European learning activities and the organizations continue their partnership work in future projects."
